Rugby polo shirt made from 240 gsm interlock (double jersey) 100% cotton for a compact, uniform surface with excellent opacity, dense hand feel, and soft touch. The oversized fit with dropped shoulders provides ease and a contemporary drape.

White flat-knit collar and a 3-button placket give a nod to classic rugby styling. 1x1 ribbed cuffs retain their shape and frame the sleeves.

Side vents reinforced with herringbone tape ensure durability and ease of movement. A self-fabric half-moon at the back neck adds a clean and durable internal finish. The interlock construction provides excellent stability.

Standard production tolerances: $\pm 5\%$ in measurements and weight.
