Rugby polo shirt made from 240 gsm single jersey, crafted in 100% cotton for a smooth surface, soft hand feel, and structured body. The oversized fit with dropped shoulders provides ease and a contemporary drape.

White flat-knit collar and a 3-button placket give a nod to classic rugby style. 1x1 ribbed cuffs retain their shape and frame the sleeves.

A contrasting front stripe defines the garment and enhances customization potential. Side vents reinforced with herringbone tape offer durability and freedom of movement. A self-fabric half-moon at the back neck adds a clean and durable internal finish.

Standard production tolerances: $\pm 5\%$ in measurements and weight.
